

ANTHONY W. BATTS
CHIEF OF POLICE

Winners will have an opportunity to:

- ◆ Have breakfast with the Chief of Police
- ◆ Attend a Command Staff meeting
- ◆ Take a tour of the Long Beach Police Department Communications Center
- ◆ Observe an Advanced Officer Training Demonstration
- ◆ Watch a Police K-9 Demonstration
- ◆ Experience the Shooting Range & a Firearms Training Exercise
- ◆ Attend a City Council meeting

For information call:
PSA Dinna Chupinghong
Community Relations Division
400 W. Broadway
Long Beach, CA 90802
Phone: 562-570-7091
Fax: 562-570-7040
Email: dinna_chupinghong@longbeach.gov

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE . . . POLICE CHIEF FOR A DAY?

HOW TO ENTER THE CONTEST:

Criteria:

Candidates should submit a one-page typed essay. The essay's content should describe how the student has prepared themselves for a possible career in law enforcement and what they hope to learn from the experience of being Chief for a Day.

High School Entries:

High school junior and senior students should submit their essay to their Activities Director by October 14, 2005.

College Entries:

Criminal Justice majors should submit essays to the Criminal Justice Department by October 14, 2005.

Long Beach Job Corps Center:

Candidates should submit essays to Business and Community Liaison, Ms. Sandy Annino, by October 14, 2005.

Entries will be judged for content, punctuation, spelling, grammar, and creativity. Do your best!

WINNERS WILL BE ANNOUNCED BY OCTOBER 28, 2005
GOOD LUCK!!

Winners of 2004 "Chief for a Day" essay contest meet with Chief Batts

Sponsored by the Long Beach Police Department in cooperation with the Long Beach Unified School District; California State University, Long Beach; Long Beach City College and Long Beach Job Corps Center